Summary of Event

SGNOG 2
Singapore Network Operators' Group

25th – 27th Jun 2013

Presented on Behalf of Program Committee:

See-Kiat Yeo

Introduction

- Assemble network engineers and like-minded individuals to share and discuss operational issues that affects the Singapore Internet landscape

- Invite local and foreign subject matter experts to share about latest/greatest technologies

- Keep the fees manageable to encourage greater participation

Numbers, Numbers, Numbers

- 7 enthusiastic volunteers in the program committee
- 9 awesome sponsors
- 11 great speakers at the conference
- 32 "pupils" for the workshop
- 105 attendees for conference
  - 90% local, 10% overseas
- More than 30% responded to online survey
  - 60% indicated it was well organized
- 100% will participate in next SGNOG!
 - All would recommend their colleagues, peers and friends to attend!

Conference & Workshop

- Conference topics range from network switch stacking technologies, segment routing, to cloud data center designs, 100G transport issues, sub-sea cables and APNIC updates + IPv6 implementation

- Workshop focused on BGP

Some Comments...

Some Comments...

Q9   Chart Type ▾   Display Options ▾   Export Chart

What would you like to see at SGNOG 3?

Answered: 34   Skipped: 1

Answer Choices	Responses
Workshops (2-4 day hands on)	47.06%	16
Tutorials (90-120 min presentations)	8.82%	3
Conference (30-45 min sessions)	23.53%	8
Social Events at the end of the day for networking & fun	20.59%	7
Total		34

Comments (1)

Critical Success Factors

1. A committed program committee
   - Distribute the roles early on, each playing their part
2. Support from sponsors
   - Helps a great deal in deciding the program and logistics
3. Automate as much as possible
   - Online registration/payment
   - Online post-event survey
4. Watch the cost!

Coming Soon...
June 2014

Contact Us:
info@sgnog.net
www.sgnog.net