APNIC@WCIT

- World Conference on International Communications
 - Consideration of changes to the International Telecommunication Regulations (ITRs)
 - Last updated in 1988
- APNIC has observed the WCIT preparatory process, regionally (through APT) and globally (through the CWG-WCIT)
- Special attention to two discussions:
 - Interconnection models supported by the ITRs
 - Number misuse in the ITRs
- APNIC's position - The ITRs have worked well for telephony, but are difficult to translate onto the Internet
