What's wakamong?

若者 (wakamono) + NOG

(Young People) (Network Operators' Group)

- Community of engineer under 32 years old
(0x20)
- Lunched in 2007

Motivation

- young engineers worried about...
 - less knowledge for discussions
 - don't know background of the discussion
 - less network of contacts
 - don't have so many friends of the same profession
- We want to make a chance of ...
 - Sharing mutual knowledge
 - Networking with prospective core engineers

Activities

- studying
 - hold study meetings
 - exchange information
- interacting
 - collaborating with other IT communities (BoF)
- networking
 - have drinking parties

How was launched?

- Originally, we were one of attendee of JANOG (Japan Network Operators' Group)
- Young members gathered on U-30 youth BoF in JANOG meeting
- Created wakamonog mailing-list for exchanging information.
- Set up a committee members for periodical activities
- Hold study event and networking event once every a few month

Benefits by joining the wakamonog

- Can make a lot of associates over the companies
 - Elder people introduce us to young members
- Can form a connection with experts' community.
- Had been taken up by the web media.

参加資格はだいたい32歳以下、でも“自称若者”でOK

今回話を聞いたのは、wakamonog運営メンバーの「ゆやりん」こと川上雄也さん、中島智広さん、本田聖さんの3人だ（写真1）。
